

VETERINARIAN'S CERTIFICATE OF CURRENT
PREGNANCY/BREEDING STATUS

For Office Use Only
Received By:	_____
Date:	_____
Time:	_____

Name of Mare _____ Hip No. _____

Consignor _____

Examination must be made within ten (10) days of date of which mare sells. Consignor shall submit this certificate to sale company no later than 4:00 pm on Monday, October 17, 2011.

If this certificate is not completed satisfactorily and on file with the ATBA by the deadline, an examination will be performed by an official sale veterinarian at the consignor's expense. Mares that are not in foal must be confirmed clean and sound for breeding by speculum examination, including broodmare prospects..

CURRENT STATUS

- In Foal and apparently carry a single fetus.
- Not in foal and apparently free of infectious vaginal disease and in sound breeding condition.
- Not in foal and not in sound breeding condition for the following reason:

- Maiden and apparently free of infectious genital disease and in sound breeding condition.
- Maiden and not in sound breeding condition for the following reason:

- Other, Explain _____

IF NOT IN FOAL, COMPLETE THE FOLLOWING AS APPLICABLE:

- Barren, bred but did not conceive Slipped Slipped twins Foal stillborn Foal died after foaling.
- Not bred Reasons: _____

Examination Method: Manual Speculum Ultrasound Lab Test

Any mare or broodmare prospect that is not currently in foal must be confirmed to be clean and sound for breeding by speculum exam and or lab test.

Additional comments: _____

Examining Veterinarian:

Name _____ Date of Examination _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____

Signature _____