The Material Participation Test Can Trick Taxpayers

By John Alan Cohan, Attorney at Law

Often enough taxpayers who are audited in connection with their farming or livestock activities are questioned on the issue known in the tax law as the “material participation test.” Under this legal test, you are permitted to deduct losses against outside salary and wages only if, among other things, you “materially participate” in the activity. Many duties, such as training of animals, showing of show horses and racing of race horses, are delegated to qualified experts, and sometimes the IRS will question the validity of your own participation in decision making, in an effort to say you have failed to meet the material participation test.

This usually happens in the context of ventures that involve a partnership or joint venture. For instance, Joseph Machado of Long Beach, California, entered into the LB Partnership with four other partners to purchase a broodmare named La Barbara. One partner was the managing partner and was responsible for maintaining the books and records of the partnership and for paying all expenses. The partnership made decisions by majority vote of all six partners. The broodmare was bred to a number of stallions, but the partnership generated losses over a period of 7 years.

The Tax Court denied Mr. Machado the right to write off these losses against his income from a trucking business he owned because it held he did not materially participate in the partnership. Accordingly, his losses were limited by the passive income rules of Section 469 of the IRS Code and could not be used to offset his non-passive income.

This case illustrates the importance of obtaining advance legal guidance whenever you enter into a partnership if you intend to write off possible losses against nonpassive income sources. The material participation test is something you must plan on meeting and complying with, and is not something to be treated lightly. As a general rule, a taxpayer will be regarded as materially participating in a partnership if he is involved in the operation of the activity on a “regular, continuous, and substantial” basis.

What does that mean? A threshold requirement for meeting this test is that the taxpayer has participated in the activity for more than 100 hours during each taxable year. A taxpayer can establish the extent of his participation by any reasonable means including “the identification of services performed over a period of time and the approximate number of hours spent performing such services during such period, based on appointment books, calendars, or narrative summaries.” But in the case of Mr. Machado, the only evidence he presented at trial regarding participation in the partnership was his uncorroborated testimony that he spent hundreds of hours researching potential stallions to breed with La Barbara, and a calendar log that reflected 15 entries for phone calls he made relating to the partnership. Even with that meager evidence, the number of hours shown was less than 100 hours per year.

The kind of activities that a taxpayer should be able to document during each year may include the following: consulting with advisers, other breeders and veterinarians, attending horse shows, horse sales, or races, seeing horses being worked, keeping business records, discussing matters with one’s spouse and other partners, implementing or formulating business plans and revising them, reviewing finances, making cost projections, making disbursements, speaking with vendors on the telephone or in person, talking to potential customers, grooming horses and tending to the physical labor that is part of proper animal husbandry, and performing other tasks and decision-making functions. But it is imperative that records be kept to reflect the number of hours involved, and the number must be 100 or more hours per year.

In my opinion, the material participation test does not apply to ordinary stallion syndications, which are not partnerships in the technical sense, but instead are co-ownership entities where each owner has a fractional interest in the stallion. Still, the IRS has been known to challenge taxpayers on the material participation test in these contexts. I think part of the reason is that some revenue agents are confused as to the application of this provision of tax law.

It is important to keep in mind that the material participation test is supplemental to the overall IRS Regulations concerning the objective intention to make a profit. Even if you can prove material participation in a horse activity, the IRS could still find the venture was merely a hobby by arguing that you do not have the overall intention to be engaged in a trade or business for profit or that there are other elements, such as recreation, lack of reliance on experts, or insufficient showing of the amount of time expended in the venture—to satisfy IRS Regulations on the subject. 🍷

JUNGLE JAVA

2015 Arizona Stallion Stakes

Jungle Java made a valiant stretch run to capture the 2015 Stallion Stakes Derby, for owner/breeders Robert H. & Mary Ellen McKee and trainer Bobbie Grissom. Jungle Java was saving ground on the rail as he relaxed behind the field racing into the first turn and down the backstretch. Jockey Skyler White Shield was improving his position approaching the quarter pole, but became boxed in while making his bid in mid-stretch. Skyler made a split second decision to dramatically shift Jungle Java to the outside for a driving finish to the wire. It was a heart pounding move to watch as Jungle Java kicked in his long stride to win by a length. Best Asset put in a tenacious effort and took the place, while Prospector's Blues finished third. The purse was $40,670.00 which boosted Jungle Java's earnings to $50,100. It was his second win in nine starts and his first stakes win. Jungle Java raced over a firm turf course and covered the 7 1/2 furlongs in 1:30:35. 🍀

ATBA MEMBERSHIP MEETING AND AWARDS DINNER FOR ARIZONA CHAMPIONS OF 2014

The ATBA honors it's 2014 Champions at The Annual Arizona Thoroughbred Breeders Association Awards Dinner.

The evening began on Friday, April 24, 2015 in the Turf Club Terrace at Turf Paradise. A silent auction featured an array of items to bid on such as a luxury golf/spa package, that included two-night stay at the Mesquite Gaming /Casa Blanca Resort Hotel and Casino. Many gift baskets, Diamondback tickets, spa and dinner gift certificates. Items were donated for the use of horse and stable owners and our local veterinarians donate there services for auction.

President Kevin Owens welcomed the members and guests and opened the general membership meeting. Owens spoke about the importance of establishing permanent funding for Arizona Breeders (the Arizona Breeder Incentive Awards were recently swept by Governor Ducey's office in the 2016 state budget plan).

In his closing speech, Kevin asked our members and breeders to become involved and attend the next

Kevin Owens, President of the Arizona Thoroughbreds Breeders Association

ADOR meeting in June.

He expressed that we need the support of all the breeders and members to help reinstate a breeders incentive program. He asked for a packed house at the next ADOR meeting in hopes to bring awareness to the racing commission of the number of people that are concerned and who are affected by the lack of funding.

The Arizona Breeders face a long plight in establishing permanent funding in our state and it may take legislation to remedy the loss that the breeders have sustained. Its the first time in many years that the breeder awards will be discussed by the stakeholders and racing commissioner's. Our association will continue to discuss solutions for this most important issue.

Owens thanked the members and guests for their support throughout the years. He wished everyone good luck and to enjoy a great day of racing at the Arizona Breeders' Festival on the following Saturday, April 25, 2015.

President Owens then turned the time over to our guest speaker Chaplain John Shumaker. Chaplain John Shumaker gave a brief insight of his work at the race track, beginning with Sunday services at the backside church as he encourages members, guests and all of the people working at Turf Paradise to attend.

He is currently working on a scholarship program to help parents working at the racetrack with their children's education advancement.

Chaplain talked about a wonderful surprise he received during the year that helped get the scholarship program off the ground. He said, he received an anonymous donation for $12,000.

Chaplain Shumaker was amazed it was like witnessing a miracle! He smiled and said, all things are possible with God in your corner.

In closing, Chaplain lead us in a prayer and released everyone for dinner.

ELENA CRIM

For your contributions to the Thoroughbred Industry

The Julep Cup is donated by the Blood-Horse and is given to individuals that have made an impact on our industry in Arizona. Elena Crim began her relationship with horses at an early age riding in hunter jumper events and participating at horse shows. She has been an integral part of the Thoroughbred industry for many years breeding and selling sought after bloodlines. Elena travels to various sales and is recognized nationally for producing stakes winners, as well as managing successful consignments. She is a great supporter of the ATBA Fall Yearling Sale, as she brings her well bred Thoroughbreds to market every year. Her consignment (H & E Ranch) sold the yearling sale topper for $62,000, last year. He was a beautiful bay colt sired by Haynesfield and was purchased by Robert H. & Mary Ellen McKee. She is always professionally prepared when working with her consignments and consistently greets everyone with a warm smile.

Elena calls Scottsdale, Arizona home and spends countless hours studying sale catalogs and working with Thoroughbreds to prepare them for sales. She is known for having a keen eye in finding well bred athletic looking horses and for being successful in the pin hooking business. Although she has a passion for Thoroughbreds she also has a passion for her family. Her daughter Hollie joined her at the awards dinner to be honored with the Breeder Award for Wedding Blush. Wedding Blush was the recipient of the Arizona-Bred Champion Two-Year Old Filly of 2014 and the 2013 ATBA Sale Arizona-Bred Leading Filly Earner. The ATBA would like to thank Elena for her continued support and for caring about the Thoroughbred industry in our state. Congratulations!. 🏆

DENNIS MILLER

Congratulations!

For your contributions to the Thoroughbred Industry

In celebration of their 25th anniversary, Thoroughbred Charities of America will be naming 20 recipients for their Inaugural Thoroughbred Charities of America, Award of Merit. These nominees consist of individuals or organizations working to provide a better life for Thoroughbreds both during and after their racing careers by supporting, rescuing, retirement, and research. Dennis Miller has been involved with Thoroughbreds for a number of years as an owner. His charitable successes have been working with a non-profit organization called Canter Arizona. He is the founder and served as the first Executive Director. Canter helps to network with other horse people and assists with a website to list horses and connect them with other people across the country that would like to purchase or adopt ex-racehorses. His random acts of kindness, have helped many owners and trainers find homes for retired racehorses, broodmares, and injured horse in need of surgery and rehabilitation. Dennis Miller has gone above and beyond the call of duty to help race horses, the ATBA and the Thoroughbred industry in general. We are honored to nominate and present Dennis Miller with the 2015 TCA Award of Merit. Congratulations Dennis for a job well done! 🍷

His Graded Stakes win in the Lazaro Barrera gave him a kick start and then Triple AAA Ranch decided to ship him to New York. He finished 2nd in the (G2) Woody Stephens Stakes, just behind Bayern. For many years Richard Owens stallion "Rocky Bar" lead the Arizona stallion standings and many of his foals are still dominate foes in the fields of stake races at Turf Paradise. Triple AAA Ranch credits their band of broodmares as precious asset to their breeding program.

Triple AAA Ranch moved "Rocky Bar" to California to take part in the lucrative breeder incentive programs. California offers maiden bonus programs and stallion incentives such as the Cal-Sired Stakes Series to the progeny of California based stallions and funds $12 million in breeder awards annually. Rocky Bar has now been moved to Idaho to stand as stud. EZ Dreamer is Richard Owens' up and coming stallion standing at his Glendale, Arizona ranch. Ez Deluxe by Ez Dreamer won the 2015 ATBA Spring Sales Stakes Futurity for Sawyer Cattle Company. We are looking forward to seeing more of Ez Dreamer's progeny, as well as Top Hit's new foals become successful at the race tracks this summer.

Triple AAA Ranch will be honored in the national publication of the Blood-Horse as Arizona's 2014 Breeder of the Year. As always, on behalf of the ATBA Board Members, we are happy to present Richard Owens and his family with this award. Congratulations! 🏆

Positive Potential, broke third and raced in fifth position, then moved into fourth down the lane and earned place. Plunge, saved ground and chanced into mid-stretch but lacked the needed kick to catch the winner. Tailored Swift broke out and vied through the opening stages on the lead, tried to get out on the turn, dropping back and was steadied.

Red Zeus broke slowly and stalked the pace. He raced four-wide entering the stretch closing on the leader. Under strong left handed urging, he kicked in to high gear and got up in time to win by a nose. G Faikir set the pace loping on the lead and set down for a driving finish but was caught at the wire. Silvanus stalked the pace, then rallied in the turn going five wide entering the stretch. He kept closing steadily, but was carried out in the drive and was out finished. Idling veered out at the start, trailed the field, but began to rally around the turn. He angled out at the top of the lane to make his bid and finished well. Cavour was rated early, rallied into fourth place around the turn to make his bid in the lane and was in striking distance, but hung late. Rupert saved ground tired into the second turn and gave way.

DIGS IN TO CAPTURE THE
GENE FLEMING BREEDERS' DERBY
$50,000 Guaranteed

Jockey Giovanni Franco fist pumps Sam Feingenbaum (10 year-old son of owner Michael Feingenbaum) in the winners circle. It was an exciting race for the fans and the winning connections.

The Gene Fleming Breeders Derby is carded as the featured race on Arizona Breeder's Festival Day. Prospector's Blues got a perfect trip during the race. He broke well from the gate a settled into third as he rated comfortably just off the rail racing down the backstretch for Jockey Giovanni Franco. Jungle Java fanned very wide losing ground at the head of the lane, giving Prospector's Blues the advantage in the stretch drive. Prater Sixty Four challenged between rivals and Jungle Java came back on to make a bid late, but Prospector's Blues was much the best and prevailed.

Prospector's Blues has started eight times in his juvenile career and has certainly proved to be a versatile race horse on different surfaces and at various distances. In the ATBA Breeders Futurity he won going six furlongs on the dirt, then won going six and half furlongs on the dirt in an allowance optional claiming race. He finished third in the Stallion Stakes Derby going 7 1/2 furlongs on the turf and came back to win the Gene Fleming Breeders Derby racing one and one sixteenth miles on the dirt. This was his third win, with lifetime earnings of $68,981. Pretty nice return on investment for owner Michael Feingenbaum. He paid $2,500 for his champion at the 2013 ATBA Fall Yearling Sale.

At the close of the Turf Paradise meeting we will be watching Prospector's Blues campaign at Arapahoe Park in Colorado this summer. Congratulations and Good Luck this season! 🍀

Jamaican Memories was unhurried early stalking the pace setters, went seven wide entering the stretch, closed with a rush, got up past the sixteenth pole and drew off by 2 1/4 lengths to win. Rocked Twice rated back early, shifted out in the upper stretch to make his bid, closed under steady urging and got up for the place. Rockin Home set a pressured pace past the sixteenth pole, was out bid but held on for show. Espresso Springs pressed the pace five wide, bid willingly, yielded late grudgingly. J P Rocker saved ground while racing close to the pace, fell back on the turn, bid along the rail to contend, was crowded near the eighth pole and faltered late. Frisky Ricky raced close to the pace between horses, bid and came up empty. Crown King broke out and failed to threaten in an even effort. Deadly Black Eagle broke out, pressed the pace to the turn and stopped.

October Road challenged the pace setter turning for home and finished steadily, while wearing down the leader, winning by a half length. Estancia drew clear early, lead the way to the wire then yielded late and took second. Top Pats Moon raced in the four path into the lane and finished willingly while best of the rest. Bingo The Bird Dog trailed and went six wide into the stretch, offered a mild late gain. Rexburg saved ground and lacked the needed stretch response. Statman Jerry outside foes into the turn, was five wide into the stretch and tired. Engineer lacked a rally while five wide into the lane. Tailgator between foes into the turn, was three wide into the lane and had no rally. Heredero chased early and weakened.

Annie Rides Again

Cave Creek, Arizona, May 6th, 2015, was a day of some significance to friends and supporters of jockey Anne Von Rosen and a retired Thoroughbred Racehorse named Devgru.

The reunion of Devgru and Von Rosen was the culmination of a long journey for both. The two first crossed paths on the track at Turf Paradise in October 2012 when Annie rode Devgru to a win. The two partnered for a total of five races logging two wins and a photo for second. Then in early 2013, the talented horse sustained a career ending injury that resulted in knee surgery and adoption by CANTER Arizona. Rehabilitation was long and difficult but happily culminated with Devgru being certified as an Equine Psychotherapy horse and working for a time with Horse Rhythm Foundation an organization serving wounded veterans and first responders.

The following year, on March 11, 2015, jockey Von Rosen was seriously injured crossing the finish line in a race at Turf Paradise that left her partially paralyzed. Annie endured two life saving surgeries and rehabilitation stints in Colorado, Germany and Puerto Rico where she continues to work towards a long term goal of walking again. In the interim, she set a goal of once again being able to ride her old friend Devgru.

Due to the hard work of CANTER Arizona and trainer Vicki Dryer, Annie's dream has been realized. This wonderful reunion took place at Dryer's Bit O Luck farm with friends, horsemen and women along with Devgru's veterinarian, Dr. Mark Anderson all in attendance.

A warm breeze gently blew as horse and rider met once again.

Devgru stood rock solid

as Annie mounted from a special ramp and almost routinely hugged her old friend before they made several circles in the round pen.

When it was over a Champaign celebration ensued with spirited conversation and laughter. This would not be an uncommon sight except for one thing. Directly in the middle of this gathering stood an un-tethered racehorse moving within the crowd as if participating in the conversation. What a fitting ending to a simple yet wonderful occasion. 🍷

2015 ATBA SPRING SALE

LES STAKES FUTURITY

Arizona-bred Ez Deluxe was the upset winner going into the 2015 ATBA Sales Stakes Futurity on Saturday, May 5, 2015. The two-year old bay colt is owned by Sawyer Cattle Company, trained by Dan McFarlane and bred by Fleming Thoroughbred Farm LLC & Tom Ramsey.

The gutsy colt paid ($14.20) running the five furlongs in 59.05. Jockey Giovanni Franco looked to be five lengths behind the leaders passing the eight pole, as Ez Deluxe closed in fast on the leader, passing Taste's Secret trained by Molly Pearson in the final strides to prevail by a neck.

Ez Deluxe finished second in his trial debut and this has been an outstanding stakes race for him. We look forward to seeing him campaign over the summer months with trainer Dan McFarlane.

Ez Deluxe is out of dam Gallatin Gal and sired by Ez Dreamer. Ez Dreamer stands under private treaty at Triple AAA Ranch in Glendale, Arizona. 🍷

Best of Racing Luck to owners Sawyer Cattle Company and Trainer Dan McFarlane !!

Track Talk

Simulcasting from major race tracks will continue throughout the summer. Live racing returns October 17, 2015-May 7, 2016 for a 136-day meet.

It was a great Breeders' Festival race day this year. Prospector's Blues held off Prater Sixty Four and Jungle Java to win the 2015 Gene Fleming Breeders' Derby. .

The Lyman & Bradley Rollins Handicap had a wonderful gathering of Rollins family members on race day. Jamaican Memories won by a 2 1/4 lengths victory. The winner's circle presentation was packed with many relatives. Congratulations to owners James & Carol Bolin, Trainer David Van Winkle and Breeder H & E Ranch. It was a well deserved win!

The Dwight D. Patterson Handicap was won by last years defending champion Red Zeus. This was an exciting finish as Red Zeus stretched out his nose on the wire to beat G Faikir.

The Ann Owens Distaff was won by Tribal Gal. She dusted the field with an 8 length victory. The race was sponsored by the family and friends of Kyle Stephen Nolan. There was barely any standing room in the winners circle presentation.

Worthy Grapes trained by Eric Kruljac captured the Joanne Dye Stakes. This was her first stakes victory, stepping up from the claiming ranks.

Shawn Schwartz, Assistant Racing Secretary at Turf Paradise has accepted the Stakes Coordinator position at Canterbury Downs this summer. Good Luck Shawn!

Peggy Hopwood recently married A.B. Thompson Jr. in April of this year. Congratulations!

Bret Hone's daughter Ivie Hone married Dalton McFall, at the Hidden Spring Ranch in Peeples Valley, Arizona. Due to unforeseen stormy weather conditions, the reception had to be moved inside the main barn. One guest commented that the sudden change in venue, was a sign of luck and the couple will have a stable marriage throughout their lives.

He also, said his business has improved with the horses he has received from new clients as well.

Robertino will be spending most of his time in Minnesota racing at Canterbury Park this summer, but he will continue to supervise his other racing stables throughout the U.S. and Canada. Congratulations! 🐾

TURF PARADISE LEADING JOCKEY SCOTT STEVENS

Veteran Jockey, Scott Stevens has won his seventh Leading Jockey” title at Turf Paradise. He won 104 races finishing in front of Giovanni Franco who ended the meet with 97 victories. Scott has won many leading rider titles over the years at different race tracks such as Canterbury, Les Bois Park and on the Northern California Fair circuits.

Stevens gives credit to his agent Chad Anderson, for helping him stay on live mounts during the season and for managing his everyday business. Scott has been riding Thoroughbreds and Quarter Horses for nearly 40 years and has achieved 4, 447 wins. Almost all athletes sustain injuries during their careers and race riding is considered a very dangerous sport. Last year Scott injured his wrist at Canterbury, but healed up in time to start the fall meet at Turf Paradise.

Stevens has always been known as a hard working guy and dependable among his colleagues. He has been involved with safety issues as the Jockey’s Guild Representative in Arizona and helped negotiate better insurance coverage for his fellow riders. He strives to make sure their safety is first and foremost. Scott has been nominated twice for the George Woolf Award, which recognizes jockeys whose on-track careers and personal character are held in high esteem by their peers. Scott has certainly displayed worthiness in his lifetime of achievements. And as one of his admirers stated... “He’s a class act”!

This summer he plans to take some time off to relax and do some scenic traveling. He’s looking forward to visiting his parents home in Boise, Idaho, but does not plan on riding at any designated track this summer. Although he has accepted mounts for a few stake races from trainers Robertino Diodoro and Molly Pearson. Congratulations on your outstanding achievement! 🍷

Vesticular Stomatitis (VSV)

A horse on the grounds of Turf Paradise tested positive for Vesticular Stomatitis. This became a concern for horsemen getting ready to move their stock to other race tracks for the summer racing season. Luckily, the outbreak happened at the end of the meet and the majority of the horses had already left the grounds weeks prior to the incident. The infected horse had to be treated and then quarantined to prevent further spread of the disease.

According to articles regarding the type of symptoms the animal will display are vesicles, erosions and sloughing of the skin on the muzzle, tongue, teats and above the hoofs of susceptible livestock.

Certain measures of caution should be taken when treating or caring for an infected animal. Rubber gloves, cleaning of horse trailers, buckets, webbing etc, all should be cleaned and disinfected.

The disease can be transmitted by insect vectors, mechanical transmissions and livestock movement. Therefore, renders necessary to quarantine infected animals for about 21 to 30 days while treatment is administered. Most border crossings were closed down to horse’s wanting to enter neighboring states from Arizona. We heard as far away as the Canadian border that horses were not allowed to cross without proper health certificates.

Should you suspect your horse could have this disease contact your veterinarian right away. Horse owners and veterinarians should contact state and federal animal health authorities and take necessary precautions to isolate the animal until it has recovered from treatment and animal health authorities have determined the animal is no longer a threat to spread the disease further.

New Track Announcer at Turf Paradise

Jonathan Horowitz is the new track announcer at Turf Paradise now that Michael Chamberlain has accepted a new role as the announcer at Evangeline Downs in Opelousas, Louisiana.

Chamberlain has been the announcer at Turf Paradise since 2008. Before that, Michael was the track announcer at Sam Houston Race Park for 11 years. His experience was well received by the race fans at Turf Paradise as Michael made his famous opening call as the last horse enters the gate. Michael would ready the fans by announcing... "Set for the start from Denny Hall.... and "they ARE off!

Jonathan and Michael have been friends for several years. Horowitz called his first Thoroughbred race at Turf Paradise when he was 14 years-old, as a guest announcer back in February of 2000. Horowitz has called races professionally at Arapahoe Park in Colorado and at Zia Park in Hobbs, New Mexico. We look forward to hearing Jonathan resume his new position in the fall at Turf Paradise. Best of Luck to Michael Chamberlain in all his endeavors.

Wildcat Handicap

Az Ridge put in a tremendous performance in the Wildcat Handicap setting a new track record for 1 3/8 miles distance on the Turf in 2:13.91. Az Ridge is a 6-year-old gelding sired by Tocet foaled in Kentucky.

The old record of 2:14.38 was set by All Saint in 2011.

Sawyer Cattle Company claimed back to back stakes on closing day with Az Ridge winning the Hasta La Vista and Ez Deluxe winning the 2015 Spring Sales Stakes Futurity.

Az Ridge received Turf Paradise seasonal honors winning "Horse of the Meet" tied with Maker or Breaker (also trained by McFarlane) and "Turf Horse of the Meet". Az Ridge captured his third consecutive stakes victory this season and has won 13 of 38 starts for earnings of $379,601. Congratulations to owners Sawyer Cattle Company and trainer Dan McFarlane.
