FALL YEARLING & MIXED SALE

This years sale was held at Horseshoe Park Equestrian Centre same as last years location for the ATBA Fall Yearling and Mixed Sale. Located in the town of Queen Creek, Arizona, Horseshoe Park Equestrian Centre is just a 30 minute drive south from the city of Scottsdale. This years catalog had something for every one. New shoppers were in abundance. We had a variety of yearlings offered by our consignors, Arizona-breds, California-breds, Idaho-breds and Kentucky-bred pedigree's were cataloged. It was a sunny fall day and we had a lot of people turn out to preview the horses on sale day. With a hint of barbecue aroma in the air from Cutter's BBQ restaurant, the outside picnic tables were full of people tasting the menu specials prior to sale time, which was set to start at 2:00 p.m.

We had 96 yearlings, 19 racing age Thoroughbreds, 6 broodmares, and 1 weanling. Our median prices was up from last year for yearlings, and this years average was at $7,430.00. The average for racing age Thoroughbreds was $5,450 and broodmare prices were up by almost eight hundred dollars with this years average at $1,140. Overall, the buyers found value in the pedigrees and many quality horse's sold for good prices.

A unnamed yearlings topped the sale with a purchase price of $35,000. A colt by Ez Effort out of Shaky Canyon bought by a partnership, consigned by Fleming Thoroughbred Farm, LLC. Kings River Ranch consignment was a great place to shop for older horses for buyers looking for horses to fill their barns at Turf Paradise ready to run. Shawn Davis purchased Exemplar. He was a very grand looking four year old chestnut gelding, by Yes it's True and out of Exploivacious for $17,000.00. Hip#112, a weanling colt named "My leap of Faith" sold for $4,000 to Jonathan Nance. This dark bay or brown Colt was consigned by the Fleming Thoroughbred Farm agent for Rafter Walking K., and a portion of the sale proceeds from the colt will be donated to the medical fund of disabled Jockey Anne Von Rosen. Anne was injured in a riding accident at Turf Paradise and has endured countless hours of therapy on her road to recovery. She has traveled many miles to places like Puerto Rico and has undergone surgeries, strength training and has gained valuable knowledge, as well as her independence with the help of medical specialists, doctor's and the designs of new technology. Thanks to Rafter Walker K, for their generous donation to Anne Von Rosen.

All involved in this endeavor; sellers and workers should be commended. Space won't allow me to acknowledge everyone...so. Thanks to all who helped make this the "Best Little Sale in the West."

The ATBA Board of Directors, and staff would like to wish all our buyers the best of racing luck with their new prospect's and we hope to see you in the winner's circle in the new year!

Good Luck!

Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals Reverse Tax Court Decision

By John Alan Cohan, Attorney at Law

In a remarkable decision, the 7th Circuit Court of Appeals reversed a Tax Court opinion dealing with a Thoroughbred racehorse owner's activities. The case, Robert v Commissioner, concluded that the taxpayer's horse racing activities were entered into for profit. The court characterized the Tax Court decision as untenable, in that it in effect concluded that a business's start-up cost were not deductible business expenses and that every business starts as a hobby and becomes a business only when it achieves a certain level of profitability. The 7th Circuit opinion was an embarrassment not only for the IRS, but for the Tax Court judge in the case, Judge Elizabeth C. Paris.

The taxpayer, Merrill Roberts, was a successful owner and operator of restaurants, bars and nightclubs in Indianapolis. In the '90s he began withdrawing from the business, becoming a consultant instead, and learned about the financial aspects of the horse-racing business. In 1999, he bought two horses for $1000 each, and in the first year netted $18,000 in purses. He built a horse track on a farm and increased his stock of race horses to 10, plus a breeding stallion. In addition, Mr. Roberts passed the state's licensed-trainer test and obtained his horse-training license.

In 2005, Mr Roberts acquired a larger property and invested in improvements for the training of racehorses. He trained the horse himself. He lobbied the Indiana legislature on behalf of horse racing, pushing for legislation to permit slot machines at racetracks, which ended up being enacted. He took on leadership roles in two professional horse-racing associations.

Mr. Roberts spent upwards of 12 hours per day working with the horses on race days and about eight hours a day on other days.

During the years at issue, Mr. Roberts' expenses significantly exceeded his earnings. The Tax Court held that Mr. Roberts' activity was a hobby in 2005 and 2006, but that it became a bona fide business in 2007. Accordingly, the Tax Court held Mr. Roberts' business expense deductions for 2005 and 2006 were denied.

The Tax Court, which was reversed by the 7th Circuit, held that Mr. Roberts' activity in 2005 and 2006 was a hobby, and became a business in 2007. The 7th Circuit said that the activity evolved from his decision in 2005 to build a larger training facility, and to make substantial improvements to the property: "The Tax Court's finding that his land purchase and improvements were irrelevant to the issue of profit motive until he began using the new facilities is unsupported and an offense to common sense." The 7th Circuit added, "The judge seems not to have understood that the decision to build the facility, and its construction, are also indications of a profit motive."

The 7th Circuit found the Tax Court's opinion confusing and contradictory. The 7th Circuit characterized the IRS regulations on the horse industry as "goofy" and commented that the Tax Court would be better off if, rather than "wading through" the factors in the IRS Regulations, that before deciding, "the court must listen to the owner's protestations of business motive."

Most of the hobby loss cases that end up in the Tax Court involve losses of large sums of money year after year that the taxpayer deducts from other conventional sources of income. Sometimes the Tax Court will fail to properly evaluate the taxpayer's genuine intention to be engaged in an activity for profit. In some instances the taxpayer fails to introduce evidence of significant changes in operation, adoption of new techniques, or abandonment of unprofitable methods.

It is extremely rare for a hobby case to be appealed to the Circuit Court of Appeals, which rarely reverses the Tax Court. It is not only an expensive undertaking, but also takes a long time. The Tax Court handed down the Roberts decision in April, 2014, and the 7th Circuit issued its ruling in April, 2016, two years later.

Achieving the near impossible ... The return of Arizona county horseracing!

Story by Sharon Denham, President, Arizona Counties Racing Association; current photos by Carole Andreen-Harris, andreenharris.com, except as noted

Everyone told us it could not be done: the return of horseracing to Arizona counties. Except for county racetracks in Tucson and Sonoita, Arizona, everyone had stopped hosting county horse races. Why? One possible reason was that in 2010, the Arizona Department of Racing had to reduce its operating budget and cut expenses. State funding for county fair horseracing was the option chosen to reduce expenses. That left Arizona counties to fund county horseracing without state support.

Historically, Arizona county racetracks funded their race meets from three funding sources: the track's general operating budget, state funding, and race sponsorship. Without the state funding, which could amount to 50% of the operational funds required to run a two- or four-day race meet, live horseracing seemed impossible. The end result was that eight of Arizona's county racetracks closed their doors. Only two county racetracks remained in operation: Rillito Racetrack in Tucson, which is a county government-owned racetrack operated under an Operating Agreement with an outside track operator, and the Santa Cruz County Racetrack, located in Sonoita, which is owned and operated by the Santa Cruz County Fair & Rodeo Association (SCCFRA), a non-profit organization.

This remained the status quo from 2010-2015: closed racetracks collecting dust, electronic systems becoming obsolete due to technological advances, barn roofs enduring storms. Some tracks were subject to "use conversion." Watching mud drags replaced the community pastime of watching horses running around the bend in some counties, barns were condemned and the land converted to soccer fields in others—and all in the name of "change" for community betterment. From 2013-2015, the Arizona Counties Race Association (ACRA), the representative agency for Arizona county racetracks, met periodically to discuss what could be done to bring horseracing back to rural communities. Attempts to work through Board of Supervisors and supportive state legislators was encouraging, no one could achieve success at the state level. Without state funding to supplement the track's operating and sponsorship funds, the resurgence of county horseracing seemed impossible.

In 2015, the ACRA met with the El Moro Foundation, an Arizona non-profit under the direction of Dr. Geronimo Ramirez, Jr., President, and Gabriel Ramirez, Vice President. The Ramirezes established the foundation to help preserve the historical legacy of the Southwest cultural tradition of the El Moro (www.elmorofoundation.org) by identifying ways in which culture, history, and traditions play an important role in the study of the humanities, commerce, and economic and workforce development. Recognizing the role that horsemen play in rural communities and in our country's history, ACRA and El Moro Foundation joined forces to develop economic development strategies for rural Arizona communities.

El Moro de Cumpas was the world famous 1957 horse race in which El Moro (left), from Cumpas, Sonora, Mexico, raced against El Relampago (right), from Agua Prieta, Sonora, Mexico. Now, fifty-nine years later and with additional border restrictions, Douglas, Arizona, sister city to Agua Prieta, became the logical choice to host the U.S. El Moro de Cumpas finals.

The Ramirez brothers' dedication to the El Moro stems from their family history: a horse their father purchased in California and brought to Arizona became known as "El Relampago"—the winner of the 1957 El Moro de Cumpas. For many, including the Ramirezes, the El Moro is about more than just a horserace. It's about Southwest cultural traditions where people on both sides of the Arizona/Mexico border come together to share oral histories, culture, and traditions ... all while attracting thousands of spectators to small, rural communities and increasing local revenues.

In late 2015 the two agencies, ACRA and El Moro Foundation, met to look at how they could move the "near impossibility" of horseracing to an "absolute reality." The county tracks offered the assets of an actual racetrack, grounds, and the infrastructure required to conduct horseracing. The El Moro Foundation contributed operational, community, and event management and promotion. And the horsemen showed their commitment by entering horses and paying fees.

The result was a new racing model: Investment Racing.

The Investment Racing model is based on a two-tier philosophy: 1) everyone has a seat at the table; and 2) the everyone has a resource to contribute to the process.

At times, the process seemed overwhelming. Racetracks had different ownership structures (county owned vs. non-profit operators) which affected how multi-track contracts could be written, how capital improvements were authorized, and how state laws and administrative codes would be followed—and all while the Arizona Department of Racing experienced administrative changes and budgetary constraints. Countless meetings and presentations with representatives from the Arizona Department of Racing, Commissioners, County Supervisors, and non-profit racetrack Directors were held to introduce the new program.

The key to understanding this expanded model is to recognize that horseracing is more than a sports activity. It's a generator of economic development. For Arizona's rural communities, horseracing brings in thousands of people to watch a sporting event while at the same time increasing revenues for local hotels, restaurants, convenience stores, food vendors, and gas stations; generating sales tax; and promoting non-profit organizations, community businesses, and government.

Community sporting events such as county horseracing also can lend support to community causes. This year, a 4-year old Douglas girl, Gianna Hurtado, was diagnosed with a rare form of cancer. Recognizing the tremendous financial strain facing the Hurtado family, the Douglas partnership responded by hosting a benefit "El Mini Moro" horserace with all donated proceeds contributed to the Hurtado family. Additionally, the El Moro Foundation, Inc. donated the proceeds of all bottled water sold at the races to Gianna and her family.

This year's inaugural event was an obvious success. The feature races, El Moro Stakes, Derby, and Futurity, held trial races at Safford, with final stakes races held in Douglas. In Douglas alone, 86 registered AQHA horses from Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, and California participated in these stakes races. Traffic at the fairgrounds and surrounding city venues increased by an estimated 2,500-plus spectators.

Under the "investment racing" model, horsemen had showed their support by sponsoring each race by paying entry fees. For Quarter Horse owners and trainers, entry fees for races are not new. However, some racehorse owners and trainers were reluctant to embrace the idea. Both factions were respected for their contributions, were encouraged to attend the monthly planning meetings with ACRA, the El Moro Foundation, and other participants, held October 2015 through April 2016.

The partnership that developed over those months allowed county fair racing to continue without support from any OTB revenue or dedicated state funding. It wasn't easy, but it was possible. More importantly, the combined efforts of the partnership provided each track a "kickstart" to build future revenue streams. This meant tracks could concentrate on dusting off the furniture and getting ready to open the entrance gates.

Local horsemen met with partnership representatives to provide input about the races and conditions for the Safford, Sonoita, and Douglas racetracks—a total of 48 races in 30 days, with each track running two races days (Saturday and Sunday). Recognizing that the purse structure had to adhere to strict budgets, each race was guaranteed a base purse of $1,800. Entry to every race required some type of entry fee, as in other equestrian events such as barrel racing, roping, or eventing. This meant good purses for county fair races. Average purses included the $1,800 base purse plus a $300-per-horse entry fee. Based on an 8-horse field, that yielded a total purse offering of $4,200—not bad for a privately funded, state-regulated, non-racino operation.

The partnership also changed the county horseracing model by looking at other equestrian events where entrants were required to pay entry fees and applying the incentives they use. For example, one race—the La Batalla de Agua Prieta Shootout—offered the $1,800 base purse plus a $2,500 entry fee for a two-horse “winner take all” match race ... meaning the winning horse earned $6,800 in less than 17 seconds!

Because each partner in Arizona’s “investment racing” innovation contributed resources, the near impossible did become reality for Arizona County horseracing in 2016.

Statistics compiled by Bloodstock Research Information Services, Inc., and cover North American racing only. While every effort is made to prevent errors and omissions, Arizona Thoroughbred can not guarantee their complete and total accuracy. Included are sires based in the state of Arizona. Deceased, retired or relocated sires will remain in the rankings until after their last Arizona sired runners have raced as two-year olds.

PEDIGREE CROSS INDEX

This Pedigree Cross Index allows a breeder to nick, inbreed or outcross his broodmares by easy reference. Indexed are the names of sires and dams included within the first three generations of all the stallions in the 2017 Stallion Directory.

Example: AFFIRMED - Charlie Barley, Mystery Storm, Peteski

In the above example, Affirmed appears in one of the first 3 generations of all the stallions listed after him.

Suppose a breeder has a mare that is a granddaughter of Mr. Prospector or has crosses of that sire in a mare's pedigree. He may want to breed her to a stallion with Northern Dancer blood to take advantage of the Northern Dancer-Mr. Prospector nick. By looking up "Northern Dancer" in this index, he can quickly see all the stallions in this register that have Northern Dancer appearing in one of the first three generations of their pedigrees.

If a breeder's mare is a granddaughter of Seattle Slew, he may wish to inbreed to that stallion and thereby get more of Seattle Slew's makeup in the foal. By checking "Seattle Slew" in the index, the breeder can readily find all the advertised stallions that have Seattle Slew in their pedigrees.

What if a breeder's mare is already inbred or linebred? She might have 2 or 3 crosses of Deputy Minister in her first four generations for example. The breeder may want to make sure the stallion he chooses for his mare has no Deputy Minister or no Deputy Minister up close in his pedigree. By looking up "Deputy Minister" in the index, he can readily see the stallions in this Stallion Register he should avoid for his mare.

ARIZONA STALLION OWNERS

Keep your Stallions progeny eligible!

Stallion owners:

Any stallion that stands the entire breeding season in Arizona, and files a copy of the The Jockey Club Report of Mares bred for that breeding season with the ATBA office, that stallion (s) offspring will be eligible to race in the Stallion Stakes Derby.

What this means to you as a stallion owner:

All 2017 foals of Arizona Stallions (standing the full 2015 breeding season in Arizona) will be eligible to enter the 2019 Stallion Stakes Derby. This should create an exciting race as there are no early nominations, or late fees.

Stallion owners must send a copy of the Jockey Club Report of Mares Bred to the ATBA office each breeding season. This is mandatory if your stallions offspring is to have the opportunity to participate.

Foals need not be Arizona-bred, but must be by a stallion standing the full season in Arizona and a copy of the Report of Mares bred on file with the Arizona Thoroughbred Breeders office.

for the offspring of Arizona Stallions.

If you have any questions do not hesitate to call the ATBA office, (602) 942-1310
